Japanese Given Unprecedented Warning That Eleven Cities Will be Fire-Bombed

FOUR TOWNS TO BE IGNITED IN FEW DAYS

Dramatic Forecast of Coming Air Strikes Puts Additional Punch Into Potsdam Ultimatum

ULTIMATUM REJECTED

By LEONARD MILLMAN
Associated Press War Editor
The citizens of 11 Japanese cities were bluntly told today (Saturday, Japan time) in pamphlets dropped by B-29s that their communities will be fire-bombed to the ground, with the first four or more to be ignited within the next few days.

The unprecedented warning of coming air strikes put additional punch in the Allied Potsdam statement calling upon the Japanese to surrender or be utterly destroyed.

Directed at 800,000 enemy civilians, the warning was issued by Maj. Gen. Curtis LeMay, commander of the 20th Air Force, who sent six B-29s to spread the pamphlets over the 11 cities. It was eloquent testimony to the American airman's scorn of Japan's aerial defenses.

The Allies stepped up their military time table for the defeat of Japan today as Japanese, choosing between the alternatives of "utter destruction or unconditional surrender offered in the Potsdam ultimatum, said they would fight to the bitter end."

Rejection of the Allied ultimatum was unofficial. Other sources, both Allied and Japanese, indicated it might be mere whistling in the dark.

American bombers kept up the pounding of the Mikado's sacred homeland during the temporary silence of the U. S. Third Fleet. A delayed dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent James Lindesley with the fleet disclosed that nine American destroyers knifed into Tokyo bay itself last Sunday night and sank two or three enemy merchant ships from a convoy trying to escape raiding Yank planes.

The Japanese cabinet, meeting in special session at the residence of Premier Suzuki, heard Foreign Minister Shigenori Togo on the tight point definition of unconditional surrender issued yesterday by President Truman, Churchill and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Shortly thereafter the government-controlled Domei News Agency said Japan wouldn't capitulate.

"Japan will prosecute the war in greater East Asia to the bitter end," Domei said. "In accordance with her fixed policy."

This was a complete reversal of yesterday's unprecedented appeal by Tokyo radio for leniency. It ignores a recommendation that Japan surrender which was reportedly made by Gen. Hiroshi Oshima, one of Nippon's foremost military diplomats. An ambassador in Germany he saw Tokyo's Axis partner beaten into submission and (Turn to Page Nine)

War Is Carried To Hirohito's Porch

By JAMES LINDSLEY
With U. S. Third Fleet Off Japan, July 26—(Delayed)—(P)—Carrying the war closer to Emperor Hirohito's front porch than any surface action have yet ventured, the American destroyers entered Tokyo bay and released a salvo of torpedoes and a blazing fusillade of gunfire at a Japanese merchant convoy Sunday night.

The sleek gray vessels then steamed out of Tokyo bay without a single casualty or a solitary scratch.

At least one and possibly two merchant vessels found the "mark," as evidenced by heavy explosions, Lt. Hadden R. Beal of Lakeville, Conn., said today.

The high speed sweep carried the destroyers into waters not previously penetrated by American surface craft.

MRS. PRICE SEEKS DIVORCE
Philadelphia, July 27—(P)—Mrs. Lillie Marjorie Price, 47, filed suit for divorce at suburban Philadelphia yesterday, asserting that her husband, Col. Terrill E. Price, 49, son of Maj. Gen. William Price, former commander of the 8th Division, entered into a second marriage while the first was still in existence. She also charged indignities and desertion.

Winner In British Election

Smashing victory over the Conservatives in the British election is reflected in the smile of Maj. Clement R. Attlee, left above, Labor party leader. He will succeed Winston Churchill as prime minister. Mrs. Attlee stands beside him, and cheering supporters at their backs.

Election In Britain Causes Change In Parley Schedule

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Potsdam, July 27—(P)—The defeat of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's government upset the Big Three timetable today, but took nothing from the American, British and Chinese surrender ultimatum to Japan which was issued here yesterday.

The Labor party victory which removed Churchill, one of the original Big Three, as one of the principals in the parley, presumably left the time of resumption of discussions up to Labor Leader Clement Attlee, Churchill's successor as prime minister.

As opposition leader, Attlee had been attending the conference as an "observer," and is well acquainted with President Truman, Premier Stalin and the agenda over which they worked with Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden at nine successive meetings.

The warning to the Japanese to overthrow their warlords and seek immediate peace or face virtual annihilation was made jointly by Truman, Churchill and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. Attlee indicated that the ultimatum will have full support when he declared last night in London: "The first thing we have to do is finish the war with Japan."

Observers here believed it was not unlikely that Premier Stalin had prior knowledge of the contents of the ultimatum.

Truman's secretary, Charles G. Ross, who went to Berlin from Potsdam to release the proclamation, would not comment on questions concerning this phase. He said, simply: "Mr. Stalin's government is in a position to make a decision."

Point Values On Six Canned And Bottled Foods Boosted

Washington, July 27—(P)—Housewives, whose point worries have been chiefly red, got blue news today about the blues.

Beginning Sunday, six canned and bottled foods take on sharply increased ration values.

The increases, effective through the five-week period ending September 4, apply to canned spinach, asparagus, applesauce, apples, apricots and grape juice.

However, grapefruit juice, orange and grapefruit blends, tomato catsup and chili sauce will require fewer points.

These are the only changes for the period except that a No. 10 can of corn (6 pounds, 10 ounces) will require 130 instead of 100 points. These big cans are sold chiefly to hotels and restaurants.

Here are the increases:

Spinach, No. 2 can, 30 points, up 10; No. 2½ can, 50 points up 20; asparagus, No. 2 can, 30 points,

BLUM CALLS AGED PETAIN A "TRAITOR"

French Premier In Years of Popular Front Hurls Violent Charges Against Marshal

DICTATORIAL POWERS

By RELMAN MORIN
Paris, July 27—(P)—Leon Blum, who was French premier in years of the popular front before the war, hurled the charge of "treason" at Marshal Petain today and said the old soldier "gave himself powers which may be compared to those of a jungle sovereign."

Petaim is on trial for his life, charged with intelligence with the enemy and plotting against the security of France.

Charles Roux, a diplomat who followed Blum to the stand, said that when France was falling in June of 1940, Petaim's predecessor, Paul Reynaud, appealed to President Roosevelt and "suggested that the American fleet come into action."

Blum released only a few weeks ago from German detention, told the high court of justice of this fifth day of the trial:

"The people of France, with the foundations of the nation gone, terrorized and overwhelmed, looking for reassurance. Petaim told them with all the authority of his past that the armistice was not dishonorable. I call that treason."

Questioned whether Petaim was reasonable in giving himself dictatorial powers, Blum said:

"He gave himself powers which may be compared to those of a jungle sovereign. He committed an odious abuse of confidence. (Turn to Page Eleven)

Senate Adoption Of Charter Is Near

BULLETIN

Washington, July 27—(P)—Senator Barkley (D-Md.) urged the senate today to prepare for a final vote ratifying the United Nations Charter at 5 p. m. tomorrow.

The Democratic leader told his colleagues he wanted them to stay on the job till 7 p. m. tonight. He asked for a meeting at 10 a. m. tomorrow, two hours earlier than usual.

Washington, July 27—(P)—Senate ratification of the United Nations Charter by tomorrow night—if all goes well—was foreseen today by Senator Tom Connally (D-Vt.).

The Foreign Relations committee chairman, who also served on the American delegation to the San Francisco conference, observed with satisfaction that only 13 more senators are listed for formal speeches. Many will be brief, Connally predicted to reporters.

The Texan is floor manager for the pact.

Only when the debate closes will Connally be able, under the rules, to call up the formal ratification resolution.

The fourth day of debate yesterday lacked the fire of some of the previous sessions. Senator after senator went on record for the international peace preserving plan, but the chamber's attention inevitably strayed to the news from Potsdam of the American-Sino-British ultimatum for Japan's immediate capitulation.

Two Killed Near Bradford In Crash

Bradford, July 27—(P)—Two persons were killed and four others injured when an automobile crashed into the rear of an auto-wrecker truck during a heavy fog near here today.

Norman Schroth, 43, of Smethport, was killed instantly. Coroner Ralph Munn reported, while Miss Arlene Lee, 21, also of Smethport, died several hours later in a hospital.

Washington Buzzing With Speculation and Rumor Over Possibility of Capitulation

Washington, July 27—(P)—This capital buzzed with speculation and rumor today over the possibility of a prompt Japanese surrender under the Potsdam ultimatum.

Many officials hoped that the bold stroke of psychological warfare engineered by President Truman, Winston Churchill and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek would get that result. But none could or would predict it.

The consensus on Capitol Hill was that the 8-point definition of unconditional surrender laid down by the Big Three of the Pacific war constituted a hard, just peace.

What Nippon's leaders have to gain by accepting now is an end to the destruction of their country. Against this they have not only the certainty of mounting Anglo-American-Chinese assaults but also the obvious possibility that Russia might go into action in Asia. This possibility is emphasized by the fact the ultimatum was issued at Potsdam.

And Japanese leaders now know definitely two things of which they appear to have been unsure before:

1. The Allies have no intention of offering a soft or compromise peace.

2. The way is left open for the Japanese people to try to save their imperial throne. Diplomatic authorities consider it significant that yesterday's ultimatum made no mention of destroying the emperor or the throne while on the other hand it promised the enemy freedom of religion and eventually of government.

Whether the present emperor, Hirohito, would be allowed to remain on the throne might depend on whether the Japanese people appeared to want him and whether he could serve Allied purposes in giving Japan a peaceful, responsible government.

Some American officials familiar with the face-saving methods of the Japanese say the enemy might bring the war to an end this way:

The war lords, realizing their game is up and their country faces destruction, would agree that the emperor should disassociate himself from the fight. Hirohito then would issue a proclamation renouncing the war. In formal public speeches, many would commit hara-kiri.

Thus they would take upon themselves the disgrace of failure and, for their purposes, save the honor of the throne. A new government, summoned as a consequence of the royal proclamation, would put through the surrender.

Soldier Stands By Wife Who Put Babe In Garbage

Tacoma, Wash., July 27—(P)—Sergeant William Pelesky, whose wife is charged with placing her newborn baby girl in a garbage can 10 days after her husband returned from 37 months overseas, prepared to return to the Pacific today, but declared "we will keep the baby."

"What else could I do?" added the sergeant.

He described himself as "just another guy living out the war" and one who "didn't come back a hero."

But two people at Pierce City Hospital disagreed. They were the blue-eyed, golden-haired Mrs. Pelesky, who said "Bill is going to stand by us," and Mrs. Genevieve Houston, superintendent of nurses, who told Pelesky he was "a fine young man."

Mrs. Pelesky's bail was set at $5,000 and her attorney said it had been "arranged."

Percy Gregg, captain of detectives, said Mrs. Pelesky related that she went to a bathroom and gave birth to the infant, wrapped it in newspapers and put it in a garbage can. It was found hours later by garbage collectors and today was doing nicely at the hospital.

Pelesky said he came home for "what we call that glorious 45 days." He paused a moment. "Yeah," he said, "those glorious 45 days!"

Plan To Relieve Sugar Shortages

Washington, July 27—(P)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson announced today that military procurement of sugar has been reduced 39,680 tons to help meet acute shortages in civilian distribution channels in eastern areas.

This action, Anderson said, does not increase the total quantity allocated to civilians from a very short supply, but merely attempts to make more available to meet the civilian allocation.

The department has received reports that many wholesalers and retailers in areas east of the Mississippi have been unable to honor sugar ration coupons.

The sugar will be processed by Atlantic and gulf coast refiners and will go to sections of the country where supplies have been the shortest in recent weeks.

NEW PREMIER LAUNCHES TASK OF FORMING LABOR REGIME BEFORE FLYING TO POTSDAM

Most London Newspapers Predict Churchill Will Not Return to Conference; Eden Expected To Continue Role With "Big Three"

MAGNITUDE OF CONSERVATIVE DEFEAT MOUNTS

By DON DOANE

London, July 27—(P)—Clement Richard Attlee, Britain's new prime minister, hastened today to form the nation's first labor government in 14 years, while a plane waited to fly him back to Potsdam to replace Winston Churchill as the British spokesman at the Big Three conference.

Swept into office in a landslide which gave his Labor party a mandate for drastic revision of Britain's domestic economy, Attlee declared "the first thing we have to do is finish the war with Japan." He will take with him to Potsdam a pledge to carry on the victorious foreign policy of his predecessor.

Attlee was expected to name promptly a foreign secretary committed to the same policy. It was believed his choice would be Ernest Bevin, former labor minister in the coalition cabinet, who would succeed Anthony Eden at the Potsdam conference.

Most London newspapers predicted Churchill would not return to Potsdam, although it was reported Attlee already had asked him to accompany him, Eden, however, said he would return to the conference if asked and would continue to do his best to help.

Churchill and Eden both were re-elected to commons—among the few Conservative ministers to survive the tide of Labor votes which repudiated the party and the philosophy of free private enterprise for which it stood.

For Churchill, since 1940 the empire's outstanding figure, there was left the relatively humble position of leader of the house of commons minority—one so small it can wield but little influence in shaping Britain's immediate future.

The leftward tide of votes swamped his Conservative party in the worst political defeat any major British party has suffered in many years, and gave the Laborites the first clear commons majority the party ever held in Britain.

The London press was frankly amazed by the result and not agreed in the explanation thereof. Most commentators agreed, however, that it did not constitute a personal repudiation of Churchill whose record as a war leader was ranked even by the staunchest of Labor supporters. But none denied this was a swift leftward surge for traditionally conservative Britain. Some attributed it to natural dissatisfaction among the people after six years of wartime hardship.

The Times of London, seeking the cause of the "astonishing" labor victory, said the answer must be found "largely in the circumstances and the conduct of the election itself," and held Churchill responsible for that. The newspaper said the defeated prime minister had "introduced and insisted upon emphasizing the narrower animosities of the party fight," permitting "the great national program" to be relegated to the background, and diminishing the people after six years of wartime hardship.

Soldiers Move Into Packing Plants

Pittsburgh, July 27—(P)—Soldiers today moved into the North Side and East Liberty plants of Fried and Reiman Packing Company to remove around 700,000 pounds of meat for army use.

The action followed an announcement by Maj. Louis F. O'Brien, labor officer for the Third Service Command, that the army had accepted all edible meat still in the two plants, tied up by a walkout of 350 AFL-Meat Cutters and Butchers the last 12 days.

Six army trucks with 26 military policemen were doing the job.

The army yesterday, with the aid of union members, removed 50,000 pounds of meat from one of the plants. Another 27,000 pounds was rejected by an army inspector as not being satisfactory for army use.

Chinese Capture Another Air Base

Chungking, July 27—(P)—Chinese troops in bitter street fighting have taken Yangso, the eighth former American air base regained from the Japanese, and have broken into the western suburbs of the major airbase city of Kweilin, the Chinese high command announced today.

The walled town of Yangso, 45 miles south of Kweilin, was recovered by the Chinese three days ago, the announcement said.

The high command said that Chinese units in the Kweilin area of Kwangsi province also drove a wedge 7½ miles north of the city again cutting the enemy's highway escape route.

Local Boy Listed Missing Three Years Malaria Victim

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Regina, 20 Eddy street, have been advised by the War Department that their son, Pvt. Samuel A. Regina, listed as missing on Bataan since 1942, died of malaria in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippines.

The last word which came from him to his family was a letter written on February 11, 1942, and received here on April 2. He was last reported with the defenders of Bataan and it is presumed that he was taken prisoner there.

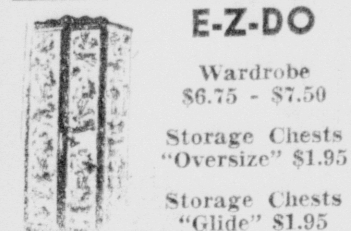

Pvt. Regina was graduated from Warren High School with the Class of 1938, and was inducted to service on March 19, 1941. Serving in the ordnance department, he went overseas before the attack on Pearl Harbor and was one of the first Warren county men listed missing in action.

Besides his parents, he leaves two sisters and a brother, Mary Jane Regina, Mrs. Joseph Bruio and Angelo Regina, all at home.

Few New Registrations Seen Before November Election

New registrations are not expected to be large enough to have any material effect on the voting at the general election next November 6, Ray Thompson, chief registrar, declared today.

New registrations are coming in very slow, Thompson said. Servicemen and others who have not registered and those who desire to list a change of address have until about September 17 to do so, he explained.

Those already registered for the fall voting are not permitted to change party affiliations until after the fall election. Servicemen who are not registered, although they voted by military ballot, must register if they have since been discharged from the service in order to be permitted a vote at the fall election, Thompson declared.

It is not necessary for servicemen discharged since they voted by military ballot to present their discharge papers when appearing for registration to vote in the fall.

Even those who have registered non-partisan can not change to party affiliations until after the election in the fall. Thompson continued in reminding residents of the city and county of the deadline for registering, if not already registered, or changing address, if moved since they entered their name and party affiliation in the registration books.

Thompson said that there are approximately 20,000 city and county residents of all party and non-partisan affiliations now on the registration books eligible to vote in November.

Times Topics

TO OMIT GAMES

Townsend Club No. 2 calls attention to the fact that it will omit its series of games on Saturday night of this week, but will resume on Saturday, August 4.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUES

Police are still investigating the robbery of the Mangus home this week, but stated this morning that they are still without a definite clue as to the perpetrators of the thefts.

PLAN TO BUILD

One of the petitions to be pre-planning Commission when its adjourned meeting is held next Tuesday before the Jamestown City Thursday will be that of The Little Theatre, Inc., for permission to erect a theatre building at the corner of Fairmount avenue.

REAL BEAUTY SPOT

The yard at the rear of the YWCA cafeteria is a real beauty spot. A glimpse may be gained through the opening of the drive to the rear of the Finley Sports Store. Planted to hollyhocks and old fashioned flowers all of which are now in bloom the yard is a riot of color that attracts much attention.

SCYTHES ARE SWINGING

Scythes are swinging on many lots in the city where weeds have grown rampant during the past few weeks under the impact of the rains. Police covering their beats report the weed covered lots and then from the city hall come notices to "cut 'em or else." And the lot owners do not like that idea of having borough employees cut the weeds with a 10% penalty attached for collection.

IS BUSY PLACE

Bert Levinson, of the Betty Lee Shop, was about the busiest bird in town today as, with his corps of helpers, he put the finishing touches on the Betty Lee Budget Basement which will be opened Saturday morning. The task is a big one as the new stock was fairly pouring in during the day and it had all to be marked and hung on racks. The new store is highly attractive and the opening will doubtless be well attended.

GIVE 'EM A HAND

Kids who have vainly tried to reach drinking fountain in front of the Masonic Temple on Liberty street are giving Ed Beck and the town council three rousing cheers and a couple of tigers. Two small concrete blocks have been cast and placed beside the fountain. This allows the kiddies to mount one of the blocks and get their faces over the fountain to secure a drink. The job is a good one and is much appreciated by women shoppers with children who formerly had to boost the kiddies drink high.

LEFT FOR CAMP

Adj. J. Brandenburg, of the Salvation Army, was a busy man yesterday transporting young people from this city to the camp at Camp Cornplanter, at Dunkle's Corners, between Kinzua and Ludlow. The camp during the summer months houses hundreds of young people taken there by the Salvation Army and a good time is afforded the young people under excellent supervision. Located high in the wooded hills with bathing pool and other facilities it would set an excellent pattern for persons who might wish to construct boys and girls camps in this area.

DIES IN AKRON

W. A. Hutcheson, of North Warren, has received a telegram informing him of the death of his nephew, Daniel Stakley, who succumbed to a heart attack in Akron, O., yesterday. Mr. Stakley had visited at the Hutcheson home and had made many friends in this vicinity. Services in his memory will be held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon in Akron. The Hutchesons do not plan to attend the rites because of travel difficulties.

MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE

Lewis Sanden, pharmacist's mate 3/c, stationed at San Diego, Calif., arrived home yesterday to spend a ten day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sanden, Beech street.

According to word received this morning from Sampson, N. Y., Bruce Coates, seaman second class, of Russell, has completed his recruit training there and has been granted leave before his next assignment.

Cpl. Ralph Haller has returned to Fort Lewis, Wash., after spending a furlough with his family in Akeley.

Frederick A. Decoration Is Cumblad Has Given Soldier Another Bar

Headquarters of the AAF 7th Fighter Wing in the Middle Pacific reports that 2nd Lt. Frederick A. Cumblad, son of Mrs. Anna Cumblad, has recently been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant. He is now stationed with a fighter group which is actively engaged in the defense of the Hawaiian islands.

Prior to entering the service, he attended Warren High School and Augustana College, later serving as a reporter on the Davenport Daily Times, Davenport, Iowa. While in school, although he majored in music theory, Lt. Cumblad was prominent in varied activities, editing the college weekly and year book in 1943, was president of Alpha Chapter of Alpha Delta national journalism fraternity, chairman of Student Union activities and class treasurer for three years.

Entering service in February, 1943, he has been stationed at State College, Logan, Utah; Mint-er Field, Calif.; Luke Field, Arizona, and Moses Lake, Wash. Since arriving overseas, his journalistic efforts and ability have resulted in the organization and editing of the group newspaper, a weekly publication which covers the activities of several squadrons and partrays news of station interest. In addition to his other duties, he is group historical officer for his organization, which involves a complete record of events of this organization. His off-duty hours are spent entertaining his fellow officers by playing piano or composing musical scores.

After the war, he plans to return to his newspaper profession.

Frank Spear Gets Bronze Star Medal

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Spear, of Youngsville, have received word that their son, Pfc. Frank J. Spear, of the Field Artillery, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroic achievement in action.

His citation reads: "For heroic achievement in action on 15 July, 1944, near San Pietro, Italy, Private First Class Spear by his bravery and courage saved his vehicle and one other vehicle from destruction by enemy shell fire. While driving along the road he and another driver ran into intense shelling by an enemy self-propelled gun which caused the other driver to leave his vehicle and take cover. Private First Class Spear successfully evacuated his vehicle through the savage shell fire. Then, with complete disregard for his own safety, he returned on foot into the midst of the shelling and evacuated the second vehicle as shell fragments were still flying around him. His heroic action resulted in the removal to safety of these two vehicles and their valuable contents. His courage and bravery are an inspiration to all who served with him, and reflect the highest credit on himself and on the Armed Forces of the United States. (Signed) Brigadier General Williamson."

Pfc. Spear entered service in December, 1942, and went overseas in April, 1944, serving as a member of the 91st Division. He has the Good Conduct Medal and the European theatre ribbon. The Spears have two other sons in service, also. Lt. Tony has been with the famed 28th Division in Germany, entering service as a member of the Pennsylvania National Guard in February, 1941, and going overseas in October, 1943. He wears the Purple Heart with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the European theatre ribbon with three battle stars, the American theatre ribbon with one star, Good Conduct Medal, American Defense ribbon and the Infantry Combat Medal.

The other son is Pfc. Nick P. Spear, with the Third Army in Austria. He entered service in March, 1944, and went overseas in September of that year. He has the Infantry Combat Medal, Purple Heart, Good Conduct Medal and the European theatre ribbon.

FROM OVERSEAS
Sgt. Claude D. Troutman, over-seas for two years with the 46th Bombardment Group, is home on 30-day leave with his family. Mr. and Mrs. John Troutman, 49 Mill street, Sheffield.

AT GAP
Officers and enlisted men arriving at Indiantown Gap Wednesday for redeployment and furloughs included 1st Lt. Gerald C. Berry, 28 Plum street; S/Sgt. Richard F. Kerven, 306 Madison avenue; T/4 Kevin M. Milroy, Sheffield; T/4 Frederick R. Mahoney, Russell.

RETURNED FROM EUROPE
T/5 Gail Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cobb, Rankin street, has arrived home from overseas, where he spent seventeen months. He will spend a thirty day furlough with his family here.

Pvt. John H. Bloom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bloom, 508 Conewango avenue, is reported enrolled in the world's greatest educational program, one of the AAF Training Command's air-plane mechanics training courses at Keesler Field.

Strawberries should be washed before and after, hulling to save the juice.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Benson, Mill street, Sheffield, have received word that their son, Pfc. Lawrence A. Benson, of Troop B, 1st Cavalary Reconnaissance Squadron, Mechanized, 11th Armored Division, has been decorated for heroic conduct in connection with military operations against an armed enemy. His citation reads:

"On 7 February, 1945, Private Benson and two other soldiers volunteered to go into the Grosskampen-berg, Germany, for the purpose of recovering the body of a member of his platoon who had been killed in town earlier that day. The men moved approximately eight hundred yards under heavy enemy fire through the town of Berg and into Grosskampenberg, Germany. With an improvised litter the men carried the body back to their platoon position."

"By his alertness and observation, Private Benson also brought back information concerning the enemy's equipment which was helpful in eliminating the enemy resistance. His courage and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Army."

Pfc. Benson is a graduate of Sheffield High School and was employed by the South Penn Oil Company before entering the service.

Capt. Elliott Pilots B-29 Against Japs

Headquarters 58th Bombardment Wing, Tinian—"We found visual bombing conditions at the target. If Sendai will burn, results should be excellent." Captain Raymond S. Elliott, of Warren, Pa., told intelligence officers upon his return from the B-29 mission of 10 July against the Japanese city of Sendai.

Captain Elliott is serving as pilot of a Superfort and the Sendai mission marked his 34th against the Japanese enemy. Formerly stationed in the India-China theatre, he participated in the major troop movement carried out early this year with the transfer of the 58th Wing from India and China to the Pacific to join with the 21st Bomber Command in the intensified aerial blows at the Japanese mainland. Members of his group launched the B-29 offensive against Japan from China bases on June 15, 1945.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Elliott, 535 Park street, Warren, the pilot's wife, Mrs. Martha Elliott, lives at 608 2nd street, St. Marys, W. Va. Captain Elliott left for India on his present tour of overseas duty in April, 1944. At present he wears the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Distinguished Unit Citation, and four campaign stars on his Asiatic-Pacific theatre ribbon.

Mosaic Hits Tomatoes In Local Area

Many Warren gardens are losing tomatoes due to a disease known as cucumber mosaic. There are a number of mosaic diseases that attack tomatoes. The virus causes the cucumber mosaic in the most damaging form. Plants effected by cucumber mosaic are severely stunted and appear wilted. The wilted appearance is due to the stringy leaf growth that droops. The plants also have a lighter green or slightly yellowish cast that makes them stand out from the dark green healthy ones.

The virus that causes mosaic are often found in weeds around and on the garden such as: ground cherry, horse nettle, jimson weed, night shade, bitter sweet, wild cucumber. The disease can be spread by handling diseased plants and then handling healthy tomatoes. Aphids and other insects help spread the disease. Workers using tobacco while working with tomatoes spread a common mosaic.

In order to control mosaic one should keep all weed carriers from the plant bed and remove all mosaic sick plants from the garden. When using tobacco while handling diseased plants, wash hands with soap and water before handling healthy plants.

Dust or spray to keep the insects from feeding on tomatoes. If you have a cucumber dust containing fixed copper and calcium arsenate, you may use that. If you wish to spray use a 6-3-50 Bordeaux spray. This can be made by dissolving 1 lb. copper sulphate in a gallon of water and 1/2 lb. of spray lime in another gallon of water and adding the two to 8 gallons of water.

Senator Stiefel Calls For Action Against the Illegal Flow of Firearms

Philadelphia, July 26—State Senator Israel Stiefel is spearheading a drive for more stringent measures to curb the flow of illegal firearms and guns into the city and state.

Small firearms and pistols are being supplied from many sources to known criminals and youths with police records. Illegal sale of firearms is creating a crime wave.

Johnson are spending a week at Chautauqua, N. Y.

Corp. Ho—Turner stationed at Tyndal Field and wife of Panama City will arrive in Tidioute Thursday for a visit with Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cahell.

Wendie Mickel returned home Tuesday after a weeks visit in Pittsburgh at the home of Dr. Richardson and family.

Mrs. R. R. Weller and Mrs. Albert Benner were business visitors in Warren Monday.

Mr. F. A. Shaw spent a few days of last week visiting his son Hugh and family in Bradford, returning home Monday, he was accompanied home by Mr. H. Devereaux.

Pfc. Clifford Mickel returned to Walkman Convalescent Hospital Camp, Atterbury, Ind., after a three-day leave with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark of Westfield, N. Y., were Saturday visitors of Mrs. Louise Elder.

Mrs. Alfred Shallenberger and daughter returned to Waterford after a weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cahell.

of serious proportions, Stiefel stated.

"The widespread sale of firearms is a problem of magnitude," Stiefel said. "The safety of every citizen is jeopardized. Citizens must be urged to take public action to ensure legislation to bar the flow of weapons to criminals."

During the recent session of the General Assembly, Stiefel sponsored a bill which provided that any purchaser or holder of a permit to bear firearms should be fingerprinted in triplicate. One set of fingerprints would be filed with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, a second set filed with the State police and the third set of prints sent to local police headquarters.

Stiefel believes that fingerprints filed with the FBI would aid in the apprehension of criminals from outside the state and act as a deterrent to law-breakers in Pennsylvania.

The bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special where it has been gathering dust for weeks.

AN ASSET BEING OVERLOOKED

From all indications, the visit this week of Earl Bacon, of the State Chamber of Commerce, to Warren will have a far reaching effect. Mr. Bacon, leading a round table discussion at a conference of civic leaders from this section, brought out the idea that recreation areas could be developed to a point where as business producers they would outrank any manufacturing interests that a town might have. This was rather a bombshell to many of the men present, as many of them had an idea that the boys who camp, hunt and fish are only a "sort of Indian who are not overly desirable and have little money to spend." But the fact that the recreational areas could be real producers of cash for a community roused the listeners.

R. F. Hemingway, supervisor of the Allegheny National Forest, followed Mr. Bacon and his talk was a real injection of pep for the men assembled. He outlined the work that has been done by the Forestry Department in the development of the forest and its resources. He hinted that bigger things were in the offing once the war has ended. Postwar developments may overshadow anything that has been done and the forest area will be made a great playgrounds. Already much work has been done and the future plans seem to be boundless.

Suggestion has been made that the groups from Warren, Kane, Brookville, Ridgway, Johnsonburg and other gateways to the great forest unite in a promotional campaign to attract tourists to the area. Such a plan could have an effect on this area that is too great for the imagination. Co-ordinated effort would bring thousands into the forest and along the river, creek and small streams.

Discussion has been rife along the streets, in clubs and similar places relative to the matter and many are of the idea that cabins should be erected for rental, that hostels should be built in the woods areas for hiking clubs and parties, that the fact that camping areas now exist in the forest be made known and similar work done.

The war is fast nearing a close and right now plans should be prepared and programs laid out for the future. Steps should be taken for the formation of an organization of workers from the towns interested; literature should be prepared and the soil prepared for a harvest. The flood of tourists will be let loose with the end of the war. Visitors will have plenty of money to spend and this area should realize its just share.

With the rich endowment nature has given to this section, it should readily become one of the nation's outstanding playgrounds. The Forestry Department will lend all possible aid.

At the end of World War One far-sighted members of the New York state legislature and congressmen united and the Allegany State Park was born. Today it annually draws thousands from Buffalo and eastern areas and Salamanca, Bradford and other towns enjoy the spending of the visitors.

The local Chamber of Commerce could well be a leader in development of the resources of this area and the God-given assets should be brought to the stage where they will produce rich revenue for this section.

CHURCHILL'S FINAL BOW

Winston Churchill has gone down to political defeat in the midst of that stirring drama which brought him to power and in fact has marked his whole adventurous life, for as his government was being voted out of existence he signed the historic Allied ultimatum of Potsdam, calling on Japan to surrender unconditionally or suffer "prompt and utter destruction."

That was a fitting farewell gesture for a gallant warrior—one of the great figures in English history—who has had so great a part in saving the world from Axis slavery. This edict, which in effect renews Britain's pledge to wage war against Nippon to the finish, of course had the approval of the new prime minister, Major Clement Attlee, who has been attending the Big Three conference as Churchill's "deputy." Attlee says England will see it through.

Start now preparing for the tin can collection to be announced soon.

CIGARETTES HAVE EASED

Most dealers in cigarettes this week have found themselves with more fags than they have had for months. The supply seems to have eased and many of the stores had the smokes out where the customers could see them. However, the standard brands were still a little slow with Lions, Chelsea, Marlboroughs and others seemingly in the majority. Harry Shawkey recalled that the other day he bought two packs of Sweet Caporals, which brand he had not seen for years. This caused him to reminisce a wee bit and he said that during the Spanish-American war he had two packs of Caporals and he sold them in Porto Rico at 50 cents the pack while there with Company I.

BETTY LEE BUDGET BASEMENT

A typical Betty Lee Budget Basement saving! A Joanne spun rayon dressy dress for only 6.77. It comes in aqua, brown, and green. Sizes 9 to 15. Other stores 7.99.

Betty Lee passes another milestone in Warren's history. Betty Lee has opened the Betty Lee Budget Basement. The Betty Lee, in its attempt to offer to the women of Warren the most complete women's store of Warren, has expanded to the basement floor. In the Budget Basement you will find as many dresses as in the upstairs store; you will find as many coats, suits, skirts, blouses and handbags as in any Warren store. For the Betty Lee Budget Basement is a new store for Warren...new in design, new in its presentation of merchandise, and new in its price policy.

The Betty Lee Budget Basement will transact its sales in two ways: (1) Cash, and (2) the lay-away plan. By doing business on this basis, the Betty Lee Budget Basement will be able to sell for at least 10% to 15% less than competing stores.

In the Betty Lee Budget Basement there will be no irregulars, no seconds, no close-outs, no mark-downs from upstairs. Styling will be kept on a par with the much higher priced stores. In fact, the rapid turnover in the Budget Basement will insure style accuracy that can't be found elsewhere.

A typical Betty Lee Budget Basement saving! Part wool Chesterfield coat in red, blue, brown, for only 15.22. Other stores $19.98.

The Betty Lee Budget Basement has scores of new blouses. Tailored, drawstring, frilly, sheers, satins, Aralac and rayon blouses. All at 2.67 and 2.99. Other stores 2.99 and 3.99.

Wanda M. Hoskins and J. J. Mastrian Wed in St. Joseph's Church Ceremony

A pretty midsummer wedding in St. Joseph's church on Thursday morning united in marriage Wanda Mary Hoskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Hoskins, 322 Water street, and Joseph J. Mastrian, 309 Market street, son of Mrs. Louise Mastrian, 540 West 17th street, Erie.

Father Alfred Bauer celebrated the nine o'clock nuptial mass and heard the marriage vows. Kathleen Simmons was at the organ for the traditional wedding numbers and as accompanist for Josephine Lucia, who sang "Ave Maria." On This Day, O Beautiful Mother and "Jesus, Jesus, Come to Me." Mixed summer flowers were used in attractive altar decoration.

The bride's gown of white satin was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and satin insets were repeated on the net overskirt and train. Her fingertip veil was held with a bandeau and side clusters of orange blossoms. With a white prayer book, she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby's breath and her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift, a strand of pearls.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by her three sisters, Mrs. D. Smith, 120 West 4th street, Erie, as matron of honor; the Misses Jane and Dilmaine Hoskins, 1349 Montague street, Washington, D. C., bridesmaids. Mrs. Smith's frock of blue moire had insets of the same material in the net overskirt and her veil of net fell to the shoulders from a matching coronet. Similar frocks and headresses in pink and aqua were worn by the bridesmaids and all carried arm bouquets of Talisman roses with taffeta ribbons. Mothers of the bride and groom wore white accessories and Picardy gladioli with black ensembles.

Al Lucia was Mr. Mastrian's best man and Sylvester Mullen was the usher.

A reception followed at the Hoskins home, where a guest list of forty included the following from out of town: Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Romaine Williams and Dixie Williams, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Patrick Mastrian, Mr. and Mrs. Marion DeFranko, Dolly DeFranko, Mrs. Betty Jane DeFranko, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mastrian, Mrs. Louise Mastrian and Frances Falber, Erie; Pauline Mastrian, Philadelphia; Eleanor Smith, Kinzua; and the Misses Hoskins, Washington, D. C. A color thought of pink and white was carried out in streamers and wedding bells and a miniature bridal couple topped the three-tiered cake which centered the buffet table.

After a Canadian wedding trip, the couple will reside at 311 Pennsylvania avenue, east. For traveling the bride chose a street length dress of light green, with white accessories and shoulder corsage. Mrs. Mastrian, graduate of the local High School in the Class of 1939, is employed in the office of the Motor Lighthouse Corporation. Prior to her marriage she was honored at showers given by Mrs. Raymond Smith, Erie; Mrs. Philip Coyne and Mrs. J. R. Krupay.

Mrs. Mastrian, graduate of Brookway High School, is a member of the Pennsylvania State Police personnel, stationed in Warren.

Personal Paragraphs

Endocrine helps give most women a younger-looking face and throat

Seems too good to be true, doesn't it. But it's a fact. ENDOCRINE, can, for most women, help improve the skin itself, not merely its superficial appearance. For thousands ENDOCRINE... with its 8-year record of success... is getting results hitherto thought impossible through use of cosmetics. This is because it contains ACTIVOL®. ACTIVOL®... a great modern achievement... is a scientific replacement for woman's own natural, skin-vitalizing substance. When ENDOCRINE is absorbed by the skin, it helps to restore the normal growth of cells and tissues. Thus, most skins tend to take on new youthfulness, to become fresher, firmer, smoother, more alluringly beautiful again. Isn't this the best way you can invest your cosmetic dollars? Many report vast improvement in only 30 days.

Endocrine... successful use since 1937... the only cream containing ACTIVOL®

From Garden to Freezer

If you have a garden, you're probably planning on a deep-freeze unit as soon as they are available. In the meantime, you may like to know how to prepare fruits and vegetables for quick-freezing in the community locker. One of the main points to remember is to get the food from garden to locker as quickly as possible. It is not difficult to learn the method of preparation, but every step is important in turning out a good product. Carelessness or lack of knowledge may waste a lot of good food and prove disappointing. Vegetables require blanching before quick-freezing. Though most fruits do not, apples retain better taste and quality if they are blanched. In preparing fruits, be sure to select good quality, fully ripe fruits. Clean, sort and stem, eliminating all that is green, bruised or liable to spoilage. Fruits like peaches should be sliced; berries and cherries are frozen whole.

Fruits may be frozen with or without sugar syrup, but the latter must be cooled. If syrup is used, the fruit should be packaged in a leak-proof as well as moisture- and vapor-proof container. Get the right type of package and follow carefully the directions which come with it.

In filling any cellophane bag with either fruits or vegetables, it is most convenient to use a funnel. Leave room at the top of the bag for expansion during freezing, press out all excess air and heat-seal the edges together with an ordinary flat iron. Fold sealed edges neatly and close with cardboard container. Label neatly, showing contents and date. Fruits will keep a year in the home freezer at a temperature of zero or lower.

ENTERTAINS AT RUBY'S TEA ROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark and Ruby Babcock entertained 35 guests at Ruby's Tea Room in Youngsville recently honoring Sgt. David Clark and his bride. The couple received many lovely gifts and best wishes.

After the excitement of opening gifts, the group was invited to the Rose Room, where long tables were beautifully arranged with a centerpiece of roses and rosebuds at each place. Singing was enjoyed at the tables following the serving. Guests were from Meadville, Warren, Stoneham and Youngsville. Sgt. Clark and his bride will return to Boise, Idaho, to await his orders for Pacific duty.

HAVE OPEN HOUSE FOR OFFICER-BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Taylor will hold open house at their home in Weldbank from two 'til five o'clock Sunday afternoon to honor their son, Major Clayton N. Taylor, recently returned after three years overseas, and his bride, the former Jean McCully, daughter of Mrs. Frank E. McCully, of Mt. Lebanon. The wedding took place on Wednesday, July 25, in the First Presbyterian church of Mt. Lebanon, and the newlyweds are here for a portion of their honeymoon. The Taylors extend a cordial invitation to all friends to call on Sunday.

AUXILIARY PLANS COUNCIL ATTENDANCE

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the VFW held its regular meeting in the post rooms Thursday evening and planned attendance at the Northwestern Counties Council meeting at Marienville on August 5. Six candidates were initiated during the business session and for the program, Sally Tome and Beverly Taft sang two selections. The committee served lunch to conclude the evening.

RECREATION UNIT WILL HAVE OUTING

The Committee on Community Recreation is having a picnic Sunday afternoon at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, on the Conewango between Russell and Akeley. Members are asked to meet at 3:30 p. m. at the Wilder Home, on Market street, from where transportation will be furnished. Charles Cochener and Georgia Spinney have charge of the arrangements.

The next meeting will follow a 12:15 luncheon at the YMCA on August 9.

BIRTHDAY EVENT FOR MRS. ROCKWELL

Friends of Mrs. Albert Rockwell gave a delightful dinner party at The Box in Pleasant township on Thursday evening, occasion of her birthday anniversary. Her daughter, Mrs. Edward Shiel, of Texas, and Miss Lois Henry, of Arizona, were out of town guests.

MISSION CIRCLE

The Effie Mission Circle of St. Paul's Lutheran church will have a tureen supper at 6:30 p. m. Monday at the Harold Ristau camp site on the Kinzua road, with all members and friends invited. Each is asked to bring a tureen, bread, butter and sugar. In case of rain the supper will be held at the church.

Personal Paragraphs

Joan Lindell, aged three years, fell from the steps while at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Chapel, 520 Crescent Park, on Thursday and received a cut in her lower lip that required emergency treatment at Warren General Hospital.

Russell Nelson, of Clarendon, employed as a driller for George C. Day was struck on the left side of his head by a bar Thursday and was admitted to Warren General Hospital for treatment and skull x-rays.

E. C. Slick, of Bayside, N. Y., has been transferred to Warren to be associated with the local plants of the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc. Mr. Slick was formerly with the Sylvania Center at Bayside, N. Y., and will be with the engineering department as senior metallurgical engineer with the Sylvania in Warren.

Mrs. Norman A. Headlund, of New Castle, will arrive Sunday to spend a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Lowrey and family, 10 Crest Park. On Sunday, Edward Sager Lowrey will return home after two weeks spent at Sunset Camps at Edinboro.

Mrs. Sue Critchlow, Betty Critchlow Hesch and daughter Anne have returned to their home in Harrisburg after spending a week visiting relatives in Warren and Titusville.

Edwin Clover, 14 South Marion street, received a painful chest injury yesterday when he was struck by a wheelbarrow handle at the Segel junk yard. X-rays were taken at Warren General Hospital to determine a possible fracture but none was found.

Victor Anderson, 113 Grant street, injured Wednesday when the top blew off a tank at the Sherwood Refining Company. He is still in Warren General Hospital and his condition today is said to be satisfactory, although he suffered a compound leg fracture and other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, 206 Water street, returned Thursday from Cleveland Heights, O., where they have been visiting their son.

Chamber of Commerce May List Rooms for Hunters

Discussions are under way whereby the Chamber of Commerce may take over the work of listing available rooms for hunters, who annually invade the county during the hunting season. The Warren County Field and Stream Club last year did some spadework in getting the listings underway and they had a large number of registrations available to hunters when they passed through Warren. The lists carried the names of many throughout the county who had accommodations for visitors and afforded many hunters a place to stay during the season. The possibility of such listings are great. The Fish and Game Commission publishes listings free of charge and many Warren county folk have their names and addresses appearing in that publication. However it is felt that with the facilities at hand the Chamber of Commerce could conduct permanent card indexes, of available homes with rates, etc. Queries could be readily answered and perhaps some advertising could be done if sufficient interest were roused in the county.

In this connection there is some possibility that places available in the county where mothers and children could spend periods in the country during the summer months. This would open a big field and would undoubtedly serve to bring many into the area. Country vacations are eagerly sought by city dwellers and this county undoubtedly has many homes that would be opened.

While still in the discussion stage such a work by the Chamber of Commerce would be a first step in the direction of Warren's taking its rightful place as a tourist center.

Local Man To Take College Post In Iowa

Franklin R. Hoff, for many years an able employee of the United Refining Company, has recently been appointed assistant to the president, in charge of public relations, expansion of the public relations program and publicity. Parsons is one of the oldest and strongest liberal arts colleges of the middle west. In academic training its faculty rates first in Iowa and among the highest in the nation. It has recently embarked upon a six-year program of expansion of faculty, curriculum and equipment, with an ambitious building program.

Herbert C. Mayer, president of Parsons, is known to many in Warren. He was leader of the Pennsylvania state YMCA older boys' conference held in Warren some years past, while still professor of secondary education at Boston University. Other faculty members known in town are its vice president, Dr. Edward H. Bonsall, Jr., formerly director of young people's work for the Pennsylvania State Council of Religious Education, and Prof. Paul B. Selz, director of religious education in the First Methodist church here from 1925 to 1936.

Mr. Hoff was born in Warren and has enjoyed many civic and social contacts in a lifetime spent in the community. Member of the First Presbyterian church, he has served it as deacon, elder and clerk of session; is a member of North Star Lodge, 241, F. and A. M.; Occidental Chapter, 235, H. A. M.; a member of the YMCA; director of the Warren Academy of Sciences and secretary-treasurer of the Social Science Section; a member of the Warren Library Association; member of the organization and extension committee of the Warren County Council of Boy Scouts; member of the education committee of the Warren Council of Weekday Religious Education; charter member of the Chautauqua Poets Anthology; secretary of the Upper Allegheny River Improvement Association, and secretary-treasurer of the Allegheny River Improvement Association.

Miss Anna Stroder, 909 Conewango avenue, who is employed at the Nut Shop, has returned from visiting relatives in Bellaire and Cleveland.

Miss Martha Ayer, who has been a patient in the Garfield Hospital in Washington, D. C., for the past four weeks, has returned to the Bellevue Hotel in that city and her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is getting along nicely.

EAST HICKORY

In the Pacific area. An extract from a letter written by Richard Range, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Range will be of interest to his friends. He writes from Okinawa, with date of July 8, to his parents:

"I had quite an experience the other day, here in this area where I have been staying. The plane was strafed, or fired upon by planes, that were in the air at the time. The building I stayed in was burned to the ground and I lost most of my equipment and all of the personal things that I did not have with me at the time. Luck was with me, because I was out on escort duty and nothing happened to me personally. So there is nothing for you folks to worry about." Richard is one of three brothers who are in service.

An Appeal To Former Telephone Operators...

Local and Long Distance

A Queen Mary docks. Thousands of veterans stream ashore . . . thousands of veterans with one common thought: "Show me the way to a telephone. I'm calling home!"

When they do get home, they still have a lot of telephoning to do.

That does it. That piles more calls on an already overburdened telephone system. But we can't say "Sorry," we must say "Sure!" Those calls must get through, and every facility we have must see to it that they do.

So your help is needed—now. If you can't work full time, work part time.

We know you'll help if you can. Let's show the veterans—their families and their friends—that we, too, can do a job.

Church Notes

United Brethren Minister R. H. Eggleston will be the speaker for the 7:30 p. m. community worship at Beatty school auditorium Sunday, taking for his topic "Four Pillars of Christianity." Music will be by a quartet from his choir, Ray Thayer, Charles Lawson, Mildred Frantz and Mrs. Hariger. Beginning at 7:15, the Salvation Army Band will play a 15-minute sacred recital, to which all are invited.

The Rev. Milton G. Perry announces his Sunday morning service in First Baptist church will include a believer's baptism for adults and his sermon theme will be "The Joy of Coming Home."

"Our Lord's Teaching Concerning Stewardship" will be the topic for the Sunday forenoon sermon in St. Paul's Lutheran church. Pastor

Nore G. Gustafson announces that the Rev. P. E. Nordgren, of Kane, will occupy the pulpit at St. Paul's during the month of August and Miss Alfreida Laugerquist will be at the organ.

The subject for the 8 p. m. Sunday worship period in the First Baptist church of Tidouche will be "Under God's Mountain," Pastor Verl C. Walker preaching.

Speaking at his morning worship in First Evangelical church on Sunday, Rev. J. C. Wygant will have as his theme "The Vine and the Branches."

At the First United Brethren church Sunday morning, the pastor Rev. R. H. Eggleston will use as his subject "Love Is Obedience." Mildred Frantz will sing. Sunday school is at 10 a. m. and Senior and Junior Christian Endeavor groups meet at 6:30 p. m. There will be no service in this church as its pastor is speaking at the community worship at Beatty school.

Dr. John A. Galbraith, district superintendent from Jamestown, N. Y., will be the guest preacher for the Sunday morning service in Grace Methodist church. Special music will include these organ numbers: Prelude, "Reverie" by Dickinson; offertory, "The Shepherds' Sunday" by Ole Bull; postlude, "Grand Chorus," Salome. A ladies' quartet composed of Ruth Kars, Elizabeth Jack, Luella Hammerbeck and Charlotte Smith will sing "This is the Old, Old Story of His Love" by Wilson, and Charlotte Smith will sing "Eye Hath Not Seen" from Gaul's "Holy City."

Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist minister, will be guest speaker at the morning worship period in First Presbyterian church on Sunday.

"God or Mammon?" is the topic announced by Rev. Hans Pearson for 9:30 a. m. Sunday morning in Bethany Lutheran church in Sheffield. He also announces that the Women's Missionary Society will meet at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday and the Luther League at 8 p. m. Friday. A special congregational meeting is to be held Sunday, July 29, following the service, to authorize trustees to have parsonage repairs taken care of.

Most Grain Crops In State Will Exceed Harvest of 1944

Harrisburg—In spite of an unusually early spring, followed by weeks of freezing weather which greatly reduced fruit prospects, farmers of Pennsylvania report that, with the exception of rye, they expect all 1945 grain and hay crops not only will exceed last year's harvesting but will be greater than averages for the 10-year period, 1934-1943.

Most encouraging is the fact that the corn crop this year will be of generous proportions while the national crop will be half a billion bushels less than the 1944 harvest. According to a July 1 survey by the Federal State Crop Reporting Service, State Department of Agriculture, grain and hay crop prospects improved in tonnage during June but the total production of fruit declined. For haying, the weather was the worst in years. Considering grain feed, the Pennsylvania farmer was in a much better position than usual and with respect both to stocks on the farms and available supply on the market.

The outlook for the corn crop the first of June was discouraging but improvements during the month gave indications that the crop would total 54,720,000 bushels which is 1,140,000 more than in 1944. An average yield of 40 bushels per acre will more than overcome a drop of 3 per cent in acreage.

Winter wheat improved during June and prospects are for a crop of 21,398,000 bushels. Fields in some localities in high altitudes may not be worth cutting on account of frost damage. In south-eastern counties excellent yields of barley were reported and indications are for a crop of close to 3 million bushels. Oats harvest will be drawn out longer than usual and much of the acreage intended for this crop will go into buckwheat due to adverse weather conditions at planting time. Oats production is indicated at slightly more than 26 million bushels.

Condition of the potato crop varies greatly and prospects are not up to average. Planting has not been completed by July 1 in the northwestern area. The crop as

Diamond-Shaped Insignia Is Of Somewhat Obscure Origin

BY GEORGE TUCKER

(Substituting for Hal Boyle) Wiesbaden, Germany—(AP)—Officers in the fiscal section of the U. S. army wear diamond-shaped insignia of such obscure origin that apparently no one knows what it means.

Infantrymen wear the familiar crossed rifles, military police crossed pistols—insignia whose meaning and origin are perfectly clear—but I have asked scores of officers over the European theatre about the fiscal diamond and none has been able to provide the answer.

Capt. Ernest E. Brown of Oklahoma City, Okla., said he believed the diamond was chosen because the diamond represented permanent value. Brown is a former infantry officer who fought in Italy. "I used to wonder about it in Washington and I asked several people in the treasury what it meant but none of them knew," Brown said.

This conversation took place in a transient officers' mess in Verdun recently where we shared a small table for a night meal. Brown had been to Paris from his headquarters near Heidelberg, Germany, and was pushing straight through on the return trip. "It was a pretty hard trip," he said. "I just took two tons of money to Paris. All kinds of money—South African, Australian, Egyptian, Italian. The last time I took eight tons. I had to overload a five-ton truck to do it."

tobacco plantings will begin Aug. 1. Alfalfa and clover yields are the best in recent years in the south-east, but quality of much has been reduced by rains after mowing. Heavy crops are expected in all parts of the state except in higher altitudes and northwest of the mountains where frosts were damaging. Hay production is estimated at 3,299,000 tons, or 83,000 more than last year. Conditions of pastures is relatively high. Over the State as a whole they are providing a high percentage of roughage. Condition on July 1 was 90 per cent of normal.

The army handles money like that, in bales of paper currency. Sometimes money is lost, such as the millions destroyed during Field Marshal von Rundstedt's Ardennes offensive last December. That money had to be destroyed to prevent it from falling into German hands.

Now, since the overall picture of the AEP is breaking up due to redeployment, much money assembled in central points is withdrawn to headquarters in Paris. Millions from the sale of money orders, stamps and post exchange supplies must be transferred. Sometimes muddy trucks whizz by soldiers on country roads and the soldiers never dream that behind the canvas is enough money to ransom a king.

Several days later I was in Frankfurt, examining the billions of dollars looted by the Nazis and now assembled in a bank for inventory by British and American treasury experts. I asked Lt. Col. H. D. Cragon of Nashville, Tenn., if he knew the answer to the origin of the diamond shaped insignia. Cragon is chief of the currency branch of the U. S. group control unit. He smiled, shook his head and said: "I've often wondered, but nobody ever told me."

Well Known Farmer Dies Of Injuries

Gilbert G. Weiler passed away at his home on Yankee Bush road this morning at 12:45 o'clock following complications received in an accident last Tuesday when a team of horses he was driving became unmanageable and seriously injured him.

Mr. Weiler was one of the best known farmers of the section and for many years operated a gravel and sand bank in East Fifth avenue. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Miss Cloe Weiler, also of this city; two grandchildren, Jack and Joan Weiler. A daughter, Mildred, preceded him in death.

Removal was made to the Lutz Funeral Home where friends may call during the usual hours and where services will be held Sunday afternoon at ten o'clock, conducted by Dr. H. A. Rinard, of the First Lutheran church. Interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral homes are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

MRS. FELICE CAMPAGNA

Funeral services in memory of Olympia Campagna, wife of Felice Campagna, 219 Eddy street, were held at nine o'clock this morning from St. Joseph's church. A requiem high mass was sung by Father Alfred Bauer. Communion was made in St. Joseph's cemetery, with Rocco Papalia, Michael LeTrent, Ralph Aurilio, Charles LeTrent acting as bearers. Attending the rites from away was Frank Tommaino, of Titusville.

ALICE B. WHITNEY

Services in memory of Mrs. Alice B. Whitney, of Warren and French Creek, N. Y., were held at the Spitzer Funeral Home at Clymer, N. Y., at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Miller Harding, pastor of the Findley Lake Methodist church. Interment was made in the West Mina cemetery at Findley Lake, with the following serving as bearers: Warren C. Wilford, Oliver Morgan and Harry Whitney and James Gibbons.

Attending from away were Mrs. N. G. Lindfield, Mr. and Mrs. James Madden, Sumner, Iowa; William Whitney, Gladys Whitney, Mrs. Alice Tingwall, Mrs. Frances Cedarquist, Mrs. Lawrence Kintner, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Whitney, Virginia and Yvonne Whitney, Jamestown, N. Y.; Wilbur Merritt, Sr., Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Ora Whitney, Chester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grandy, Union City.

JOHN A. ABRAMSON

John A. Abramson, 74, resident for many years of Sheffield, passed away early this morning in the Kane Community Hospital, where he was admitted yesterday, after suffering injuries from a fall. A valued employee of the Tionesta Valley Railroad for 45 years, he retired six years ago. Mr. Abramson was an active and faithful member of the Sheffield Methodist church.

In 1903 John Abramson was united in marriage with Mary Elizabeth Olson, who survives with two sons, Everett Abramson of Sheffield, and Kenneth, EM 2/c, with the navy in the Pacific. Also surviving are five grandchildren and a twin sister, Mrs. Nels Nelson, of Springfield, Mass. Two daughters preceded him in death.

Friends may call at the usual hours at the Borden Funeral Home and services in his memory will be held from there at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

ers in a manner similar to the Australian in the Middle East. He added that three Australian Air Force (RAAF) squadrons from overseas would be provided as a contribution to the very long range RAF task force in the Pacific. These would be in addition to two RAAF fighter squadrons already overseas for participation with the forces of occupation in Europe.

A token force would be associated if possible with the British operations to recapture Singapore to avenge defeat there in 1942 and to contribute to liberation of Australian prisoners of war.

The remainder of Australian forces would continue their present operations in Borneo, New Guinea, New Britain and the Solomons.

Employment Counselors Aid Workers

Stabilization of employment and reduction of labor turnover and absenteeism are objectives of the employment counseling service offered by the United States Employment Service. David W. Levine, manager of the USES office here said today.

"When USES counselors help applicants solve their employment problems, either by proper selection of a job in accordance with their interests, abilities and potentialities, or by directing them to training opportunities that will better fit them to do a good job, we can count on more efficient and satisfied workers," Mr. Levine declared.

"Employment problems may be closely associated with other personal adjustment problems and frequently successful job adjustment cannot be affected until other personal problems are solved," he pointed out. "While the employment counselor must recognize the existence of these other problems, the employment service will concentrate its efforts within the field in which it is best equipped to deal—namely, job adjustment and will refer the applicant for assistance in solving his other problems to those agencies that are better equipped to deal with them."

The heart of employment counseling, Mr. Levine asserted, lies in the process of helping the individual determine after a thorough (Turn to Page Eleven) prime minister's own stature. The result, with 13 districts yet to count votes, gave the Labor party 380 of the 640 common seats. Allied parties captured 27 more, for a total of 417. The Conservatives had only 195 seats and Allied parties 15 more for a total of 210. The results in the remaining 13 contests will be made known early in August.

The Labor party is committed to a socialistic program which can shape the foundation of British economy as it is constituted at present. The party calls for nationalization of basic industries such as coal, iron and steel of inland transportation, and of the Bank of England.

Churchill, in a valedictory statement as prime minister, said all plans and preparations had been made for a victory over Japan which might come "much quicker than we have hitherto been entitled to expect," and declared he regretted he had not been permitted to finish that job. He expressed gratitude to the British people for unflinching support during the perilous years of the European war.

BULLETIN

Frankfurt On the Main, July (AP)—Secretary of War Stimson hinted today that the Big Three powers were meeting difficulties in reaching a unified policy on the administration of Germany. The Big Three were "working on discrepancies when I left Potsdam two days ago and they will probably still be working on the when I am back in the United States," Stimson said in answer to a press conference question. Stimson declined to comment further on the Potsdam situation, saying he had been present at the invitation of President Truman as a "stand by."

him. There was no comment from him or his delegation. Silence likewise was maintained at Stalin's headquarters.

To Attlee, a parliamentary veteran with the common touch, Truman overnight lost the distinction of being the freshest member of the Big Three, of which Stalin remains as the only original member.

Four Towns To Be Ignited In Few Days

was convinced of the futility of fighting further. From Manila came a report that Japanese leaders were preparing the country for surrender before invasion. Washington buzzed with rumors and speculation of prompt surrender. Churchill commented the end of the Pacific war "may come much quicker than we have hitherto been entitled to expect."

Regardless of what Emperor Hirohito's advisers actually do, the Allies went ahead with plans to turn loose their full military might which the Potsdam declaration said "will mean the inevitable and complete destruction of the Japanese armed forces and the utter destruction of the Japanese homeland."

This, the Potsdam ultimatum said, is the only alternative to unconditional surrender of the Japanese armed forces, elimination of the propagators of the Pacific war, and a return to democratic principles.

Tokyo noted the "conspicuous" absence of Stalin's signature on the ultimatum and interpreted the defeat of Churchill's government as a sign of Allied disunity. But Clement Attlee announced in his first statement as Britain's new prime minister that "the first thing we have to do is to finish the war with Japan."

The United States will throw 7,000,000 troops into the task, said Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of army ground forces. Only a fraction of them will actually be on the firing line.

Australia will cut her forces down from six to three army divisions, reduce her air force from 53 to 36 squadrons but maintain her present navy. This represents an increase in Australia's air force in the Pacific and no change in ground and sea power. Three divisions are fighting in Borneo where Japanese are withdrawing toward the Samarinda oil fields, and New Guinea where the Aussies drove on the Nipponese food supply area.

British forces reported killing 3,000 Japanese and capturing 400 in six days fighting in South Burma.

Instead of Him

by PEGGY O'MORE

Chapter 1

"THE trouble with you, Miss Grey—" Jane Grey waited, a pencil-slim figure in a sheer black wool frock with a jade clip at the neckline. A jade comb held her sleek black hair back from her brow and matched her long jade green eyes.

L. T. Guffery of Guffery Foundations drew a deep breath and continued, "You don't understand; there is nothing personal in this. I fully appreciate your knowledge and the maintenance of your department's operations; however, it would be preposterous to place a girl, a young and— and attractive girl in even a sub-executive's chair."

Jane turned at the outer door. "Mr. Guffery! If you think I'm going to hang around here to play wet nurse to a pipsqueak who doesn't know a bar from an ingot, a lame brain who's won the job I've earned merely because he belongs to the so-called superior sex, then you're wrong. I'm through. Good-bye, Mr. Guffery!"

"She'll be back," Guffery prophesied. "Women!"—he bit the end from a cigar and spat out the word with the cigar end—"are all the same." Which showed how very little he knew about women.

JANE'S resolve was further heightened by an air mail special she found waiting on her dressing table from California. It was from Gram.

Gram was short for great-grandmother, the original Mrs. Champ Stanton who'd started life as child housekeeper for her gold rush-bent father, taken pity on the miners who'd begged to buy her bread and cakes, finally married one and become, unofficially, the wife of that fabulous person Champ Stanton, who had been no more than a reckless prospector at the time of their marriage.

Jane opened the letter quickly, conjuring up a mental picture of the little old woman who'd returned to her beloved Mother Lode country when Champ had finally drunk his fill of an exciting life.

Mrs. Champ Stanton used a pen with a point as blunt as her tongue. Without preamble she began her message to her favorite great-granddaughter.

"If you don't mind me to go back to cooking for miners, you'd better hire yourself out here on the next plane."

Love, Gram, Jean Stanton.

Jamestown All-Stars Here, Indies Away This Sunday

NFO's Vs. Titusville Tonight At State; At Pleasantville On Saturday; Irvine On Sunday

The National Forge baseball team goes on another weekend "baseball spree" tonight at the State Hospital against Titusville in the first of three scheduled weekend encounters.

Tomorrow afternoon the NFO's trek to Pleasantville for an afternoon meeting with Charlie Beers' Northern Ordnance outfit, which lost a 10-3 decision to a combination Forgers and Warren Indies several weeks ago.

On Sunday, the Forge returns to Wilder Park for its weekly three o'clock attraction. This week's card presents the highly touted Jamestown All Stars, managed by veteran Joey Nagle. The All-Stars whipped the locals 1-4 in their first meeting this season, on a 10-3 lacing.

Last Saturday at Chautauqua, the locals took a 10-3 lacing by the same crew under the name of Chautauqua.

Both tonight's and Sunday's game are marked down as revenge game, as well as making up for last Sunday's 3-0 heartbreaker at Irvine.

"Dig" Hines will undoubtedly get the call from Manager Emmory Morrison tonight to face the Merchants. It will be the sixth victory for Hines if he comes through safely tonight. "Ginny" Freeborough, who has seen little but relief action so far, is listed for the Pleasantville encounter, and young Craig Bennett is slated for Sunday afternoon.

Bennett has won three games during the season while losing only one. He chalked up a double win over Corry's Merchants, and the Forgers' lone conquest of the Jamestown stars.

The local lineup will remain the same over the weekend, with the exception of Andy Natale's probable return to second base, replacing Mike Solock, who will be sent into the outfield patrol.

Game time tonight at 6:15 and on Sunday at three. Umpires for both games will be Pierce and Swanson.

Thomas Trims Sylvania, 15-12, at Beaty

Thomas Coupling won his first softball game last night, a 15-12 verdict over Sylvania, after losing three straight during the second round.

A six-run rally in the first frame as the entire team took a turn at bat gave the winners a lead they never relinquished. Charlie Pettit allowed his opponents only 10 hits as his mates added up 19. Olsen went the route for the losers.

In the eighth inning, Sylvania, trailing 14-3, racked up a six-run spurge as they moved within striking distance of the leaders. Thomas came back in their half of the eighth to make it 15-11. The Sylvania scored one run in the bottom half of the ninth, stranding men on third and second.

Tonight, the Baptists tangle with Grace Methodists, the Baptist crew having yet to win a game.

DODGER DOINGS thru the years

AP Newsfeatures
The fabulous Larry MacPhail took command of the Dodgers in 1938. The Brooklyn directors never will forget the occasion. The red head took control of the situation right from the start, insisted on a free hand, and unlimited operating expenses. When the directors hesitated, Larry pulled a watch, hit a desk, and said "Make up your mind!" They did.

Manager Burleigh Grimes got off on the wrong foot with MacPhail when he was quoted as saying his club would finish last. They ended up seventh and that was the end of Grimes. When Secretary John McDonald suggested Leo Durocher for manager, Larry hit the ceiling and said: "Durocher could never manage a ball club for me!" Later, he changed his mind.

No other manager ever was fired and rehired as many times as Durocher. Every time Leo would say he did something that MacPhail didn't like, the red head would belittle him. "You're fired!" They forgot all about it the next day. The worst explosion came after the Dodgers won the 1941 pennant and Durocher ordered the train to pass 125th St. not knowing Larry was waiting there.

Baseball men will never forget the speech MacPhail made at the writers' dinner in 1942 after President Roosevelt's famous green light. Larry stole the show and outlined a way for the game to keep going. The big laugh came, however, when after he finished his speech with characteristic MacPhailian vigor, he couldn't find a copy of his speech for the papers.

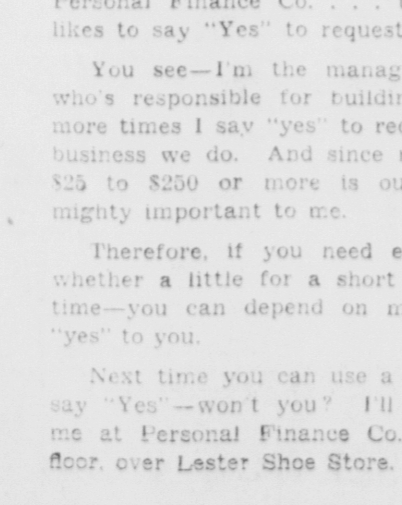

Sylvania girls win
The Sylvania girls' team scored a decisive 14-4 victory over the Struthers Wells outfit last night at Beaty Field. Batteries for the winners were Washburn and Peters; for Struthers, Joy and Anderson.

BARNES

Barnes, July 24.—Mrs. Anna Chandler was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Women's Adult Bible Class which was held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Whitton last Thursday afternoon. The very rare occasion observed was Mrs. Anna Chandler's ninety-third birthday. Mrs. Chandler gets around fine for one of her years. She received many lovely cards and gifts in memory of the day. Two lovely cakes, one dark, and the other light, with ice cream and coffee were served to the rather large assembly. The society held a short business meeting. Mrs. George Christian presided in the absence of the president.

Mrs. Chas. Burns has been on the sick list during the past week. Mrs. Harold Stover, Donald Stover and little Miss Carol Stover of Barnes in company with Mrs. Fred Pittock, Robert Pittock and Richard Pittock of Kane motored to Pittsburgh Tuesday, where they will visit relatives. Robert Pittock has received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army after four and one-half years of service, thirty-eight months of which were spent overseas. He wears six battle stars on his European theatre ribbon. He was the first Barnes boy to be called to service by Selective Service. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pittock, have since moved to Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer and son, Raymond, returned Friday afternoon from Pittsfield, Mass., where they had been guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. George Havener. Miss Joyce Whitton is spending this week at Warren county Girl Scout camp. Miss Gloria Whitton spent the weekend visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hunter, at their farm home near Warren. Miss Ruth Miller is spending this week in Erie, the guest of her sister, Miss Joyce Miller. Miss Marian Irvine and little Tommy Gibson of Warren spent the weekend as the guests of Mrs. Blanche Irvine and Miss Blanche Irvine.

Lt. and Mrs. Bertrand Roy Hover and their small daughters, Ruth Ann and Carol Jean, returned to Oil City Monday afternoon, after spending ten days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hover. Miss Rachel Barnes of Warren was a guest at the Hover home Friday. Mrs. Alva Amsler and children, Norma, Madeline and Scott, of Clarendon Heights, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rudolph Sunday. Mrs. Spencer Conklin of Warren spent Thursday as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rudolph. (Turn to Page Twelve)

Independents At Titusville This Sunday

The "Kids" move in quest of a fourth season victory Sunday afternoon when they trek to Titusville for an afternoon engagement with the team that scored a 4-2 decision over the National Forge. Juna Rose or Bob Schussler will probably get the mound call from Manager Sam Cosmano. The remainder of the locals' lineup will be the same as usual. The Merchants boast one of the finest teams in the section. Billy Beers, who will pitch against the Forge tonight, will also do the job against the Indies. The Indies hold wins over Mt. Jewett, Ashville, and Pleasantville, while they were defeated twice by Jamestown, once by the Forge, and had one game rained out. The ancient Greeks and Romans used to enjoy highly perfumed food.

"YES MAN"

My name is Dorothy Baker. I'm the "Yes Man" at Personal Finance Co. . . that is—I'm the one who likes to say "Yes" to requests for Personal Loans. You see—I'm the manager of our office—the one who's responsible for building up our business. The more times I say "yes" to requests for loans—the more business we do. And since making Personal Loans of $25 to $250 or more is our ONLY business—that's mighty important to me. Therefore, if you need extra cash at any time—whether a little for a short time or a lot for a long time—you can depend on my doing my best to say "yes" to you. Next time you can use a loan give me a chance to say "Yes"—won't you? I'll consider it a favor. See me at Personal Finance Co., 216 Liberty St., second floor, over Lester Shoe Store. Phone 285.

Electrification Will Be Topic At Scandia

In line with a program of the Rural Electrification Cooperative of this county a meeting will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Scandia Grange Hall at which the steps will be taken for signing a petition of that section. The Warren county group is planning on the construction of over 300 miles of rural electric lines as soon as the war is at an end and material is again available. Meetings will be held in various sections of the county at which an effort will be made to sign up farmers for the use of the current.

The Rural Electric Co-ops over the nation will spend millions in the extension of lines and the local group has a program which fits into the national expansion plan. At the present time a large area in the western end of the county is being served and the proposed construction work will cover almost the entire section of the county which at present is not electrified.

It is anticipated that with the ending of the war and electrical equipment again becoming available that the rural market for coolers, freezing units, milkers, household appliances will become great and that millions of new appliances will be sold. In this connection it is interesting to note that the Warren County Cooperative is a member of the group forming the Allegheny Electric Company, Inc., which is seeking a charter for the construction of a generating plant at Templeton on the Allegheny river. The proposed plant would provide power for the several co-operative groups which are affiliated with it. The application is being opposed by the Pennsylvania Electric Company in the Dauphin county courts.

Local People Attend Erie WMC Meet

A combined area training council meeting and training conference for the S. Employment Service counselors was conducted yesterday in the YMCA, according to David Levine, manager of the Warren office of the U. S. E. S. The primary purpose of the meeting was to discuss training facilities available for the returning veteran and the civilian.

Those participating in the program were Carl J. Minzenberger, Assistant Area Director of WMC; Kathryn L. Keep, Occupational Analyst, WMC; John P. Jeffery, Director of Vocational Education; Augustus J. Reynolds, Jr., Field Representative for Apprentice Training Service; Conrad C. Spangler, District Representative, Pennsylvania State College Extension Service; C. Herbert Grove, Head of the Management Contract Department, training within industry; Leonard J. Guskis, Rehabilitation Agent; Glenn A. Cook and E. Rice, Veterans Administration; and Lieut. E. Howard Mollison, USNR, resident assistant to the district civilian personnel director, S. G. Davis, local interviewer for the U. S. E. S., and Mrs. Julia Decker attended the meeting representing the Warren office. Managers, local training representatives and counselors from Bradford, Clarion, Corry, Franklin, Greenville, Erie, Meadville, Oil City and Sharon also participated.

SATURDAY

Only one more day to take advantage of selecting your 1946 Fur Coat from the combined collection of our New York furrier's and our own... the largest selection in Warren! Every type of coat from stripe Sable Dyed Coney at $59 to Sheared Beaver at $998. Every coat is made from the finest prime pelts... those richest, deepest first pelts of the Season. Be sure to see them Saturday!

Luxurious Fur Coats

$59 to $1,000

A fur coat is no longer a luxury. It is a necessity to us who live in this climate... which, as we know, becomes bitter cold and only a Fur Coat will keep that cold out! No longer is a Fur Coat heavy... It is so treated that it is as light as your cloth coat and tailored along the very same lines. This year there are new details, such as the Push-Up sleeve, which gives that extra fullness to the upper part of the sleeve; turn-back cuffs, the little collar, the Tuxedo front... details you will not want to miss. And remember—Our Label is Your Assurance, Your 49-Year-Old Guarantee.
